

Special Brown Bag Presentations
April 7 and 21, 2020

DEEP DIVE INTO ZOOM
How to Avoid Becoming the Antisocial During the Time of "Social Distancing"

This Webinar will explain how to use the different features of Zoom, currently being used for connecting with clients, mediations and even virtual happy hours. Zoom has become widely popular during this time of staying safe, and will probably continue to be beneficial in our everyday lives. This presentation will help improve your Zoom knowledge and lingo so that you can be ready to help others and know exactly what to do the next time you are invited to that Virtual Happy Hour!

Two Webinar Dates Available (both from 12:30 to 1:30 pm)
Tuesday, April 07, 2020
Tuesday, April 21, 2020

RSVP (state which date) to: Francie Skaggs – francieskaggs@gmail.com by 10:00 a.m. day of each webinar.

A link to access this virtual meeting will follow at a later date.

CCLS continuous education certificates are not available for this event. This event is open to anyone in the legal industry. Feel free to share with your colleagues and friends.

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Brook Braunschweig, Director of Business Development

Brook has worked her way up the ranks from billing and reception to Aptus' Director of Business Development. Prior to joining Aptus, Brook spent her litigation career loyal to a single agency for over ten years. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Spanish from San Francisco State University, where she played on SFSU's Women's Soccer teams. When not at work or watching sports, you can find her running marathons or playing on as many as five recreational soccer teams.

Mike Tisa, Director of Litigation Technology

Mike is the Director of Litigation Technology at Aptus Court Reporters. He attended the University of Missouri and earned a Bachelor of Journalism and minored in Business Administration and Sociology. He holds a Professional Certificate in Digital and Social Media from San Diego State University. As a Certified Legal Video Specialist and NCRA Trial Presentation Professional, he remains on the cutting edge of what's new in the world of litigation technology.
