About the Speaker:

Brian McDonald is a Partner at Jones Day who represents policyholders in major coverage disputes and has helped clients secure hundreds of millions of dollars in insurance recoveries for extraordinary losses. He also advises clients on the design, negotiation, and purchase of insurance programs.

Brian counsels policyholders relating to a broad array of insurance lines, including cyber insurance, directors and officers liability, commercial general liability, employment practices liability, property and business interruption, errors and omissions, environmental, and umbrella/excess insurance. He also counsels clients on alternative dispute resolution mechanisms and risk management issues.

Brian is a former law clerk to the Honorable Margaret Morrow in the Central District of California. He is a Fellow of the Berkeley Center for Law and Technology and a member of the American Bar Association, the State Bar of California, and the Bar Association of San Francisco. Brian earned his JD from Berkeley Law, where he was Managing Editor of the California Law Review, and Articles Editor of the Berkeley Technology Law Review. He earned his BA from the Walsh School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University.
