About the Presenter

Growing up in Miami, Amie witnessed many waves of immigration - often people fleeing violent conflict. In her parents' ice cream store, she met many immigrants whose stories moved her deeply, that she still thinks about to this day. She is inspired by my clients' stories of resilience, strength and compassion, and value the new window into the world each provides. (And the occasional recipes!)

Certified by the State Bar of California as a Specialist in Immigration law, she has practiced immigration law exclusively since 1999. Her practice includes asylum, family immigration, citizenship, removal defense, hardship waivers, crime/domestic violence victim visas and artist and athlete visas.

She has served on several legal boards, mentored and lectured on immigration, written articles, and have been interviewed on immigration topics by newspapers, magazines and television.
